

HealthSouth Purchases Land In Murrieta, California And Announces Plans For New Hospital

PR Newswire
BIRMINGHAM, Ala.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 5, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- HealthSouth Corporation (NYSE: HLS) today announced it has acquired land and plans to construct an approximately 54,000-square foot, two-story inpatient rehabilitation hospital in Murrieta, California. In connection with these plans, HealthSouth purchased 4.8 acres of land located at 35470 Whitewood Road in Murrieta.

"We have been privileged to serve patients in California since 1995 at our other locations and look forward to offering high-quality services closer to home for those residents in Murrieta and the surrounding areas," said HealthSouth West Region President Jerry Gray. "This new, state-of-the-art hospital will ensure residents have appropriate and reasonable access to the latest rehabilitative treatment and technology in a hospital setting."

The proposed 50-bed hospital will provide inpatient rehabilitative care including specialized rehabilitation programs using advanced technology to help patients recover from major illnesses, injuries or surgeries. Design work on the hospital is currently underway, and the Company will be working closely with California's Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development (OSHPD) in order to begin construction as quickly as possible. Given the regulatory timetable, construction is expected to begin in the third quarter of 2016, and the hospital should be operational by the fourth quarter of 2017. The new hospital represents an approximately $30 million investment in the community and, once fully operational, will provide approximately 200 full-time jobs.

HealthSouth currently owns two inpatient rehabilitation hospitals in California, HealthSouth Bakersfield Rehabilitation Hospital and HealthSouth Tustin Rehabilitation Hospital. The Company has also announced plans to build an inpatient rehabilitation hospital in Modesto, California, pending approval from OSHPD.
